contracts so as to cover members of the crew in cases where the individual is a member of the crew at the direction of the Agency. Specifically, the sentence which now reads: "The term 'passenger' shall not include the pilot or any other member of the crew" will be amended by adding at the end of it "unless such participation as pilot, copilot or other member of the crew is undertaken at the direction of the policyholder." I suggested that the word "policyholder" be replaced by the words "the member's employer." Ben felt would accept that. 2. Ben feels also that he will have no trouble in persuading that the language, as amended, covers and he proposes to handle this on a case basis when and if a case comes about.
